JAFFA GATE IN JERUSALEM

Passageway Through Which General Allenby Entered Is the Real Article, Writer Says.

Jerusalem has seven gates and a transportation problem handled at present, as of old, along purely Eastern lines. There are donkeys, horses, camels-even carriages and the ubiquitous flivver and all that traffic concentrates naturally at the gates, just as, to increase its force, water used to be made to flow through a small opening in the old-fashioned tide mills at home. As for telephones, who that can shout from roof to roof and down the echoing street should trouble himself to whisper into a funnel?

My windows are well placed, for I widest opening the city has, since William II of Prussia had it enlarged to permit his spectacular entry-a symbolical pageant that he staged to represent his taking possession of the holy city by agreement with the sultan in Constantinople. But wide is the gate which lendeth unto destruction. The real Jaffa gate is a narrow one at the side of the wide passageway; and this was the one used by Gen. Allenby when he entered Jerusafoot, carrying the cane that the British officer affects as his only scepter of power. This gate is now closed with heavy iron bars and will not be reopened until the exact political status of Jerusalem has been deter-

Dec. 7, 1920 at 10 o'clock a. m. Miss Johnson was born, Dec. 27, 1885 at Derby, her last illness and death took place at the old homestead where she was born. When her parents resided at Barton she attended Barton Academy from which institution she graduated in 1903. Af-ter her graduation she took up a course as a professional nurse in New York City, later going to the Homeopathic Hospital in Proidence, R. I. The last few years she spent in social and church work, cooperating with her father in his numerous pastorates in the Vermont Conferences. About a year ago she submitted to an operation at the Royal Victoria Hospital at Montreal and while receiving sufficient help to enjoy the summer, the return of her trouble was inevitable and caused her illness and death on Tuesday last. There were many beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends. A beautiful song service was impressively rendered by Messrs. Tracy and Brown of West Charleston, parishoners of the United church where Mr. Johnson has served during the last three years. The funeral was held Thursday at the old home in Der-by, Rev. L. A. Edwards of Newport officiating assisted by Rev. E. Dav-idson and Rev. M. S. Eddy of Derby. The interment was in the family lot in Derby cemetery. These few lines were written by Miss Frances Woodworth, a cousin, who was with the family at the time of her decease.
